GEORGE E. GOODING,

Chairman of Assesors.

WM. P. & A. H. HOOD,

INSURANCE AGENTS

SOMERSET, MASS.

WE REPRESENT THE FOLLOWING COMPANIES.

Holyoke of Salem, Quincy of Quincy, Traders & Mechanics of Lowell, Citizens of Boston, Dorchester of Boston, Abington of Abington, City of London, England, Metropole of Paris, France.

These Companies are all first-class, reliable and well managed.

The Holyoke, established in 1843, is the strongest Mutual Company in Mass.

Note the following comparison, from Ins. Commissioners Report 1882.

HOLYOKE
Surplus over all liabilities.	Amount at risk.	Surplus per $1000 at risk	Income.	Expenditures.	Difference.
$431,881.42	19,679,221	21.90	110,602.83	75,923.26	34,679.57 Gain
HINGHAM.
$144,351.39	21,263,536	6.79	70,416.76	72,827.31	2,410.55 Loss

The Holyoke has never made an assessment, pays a better dividend than the Hingham, and adjusts its losses promptly.
Its rates are uniform, its risks are scattered and there is NO CHARGE FOR THE POLICY.

The Quincy is an old and safe Company and has an excellent-reputation for fair dealing. Its surplus is $271,819, its dividend is larger than the Hingham's, its deposit rate smaller.

The policies in the above Companies are the Mass. Standard, binding the Company for the full value insured, no 3-4 clause.

All matters of a legal nature, the transfer of property, drawing up instruments and prosecuting claims, carefully attended to. Dividends collected of any Co. at short notice.

Parties met by us in any part of Dighton on the Second and Last Saturdays of each month.

Our patrons supplied with Statements, Blotters and Calendars by applying for same. Insurance applications forwarded to us by JOHN A. LEWIS or notify us by post and we will call in person.

WM. P. & A. H. HOOD. Somerset, Mass.
